

About us.

As the founder of AFRICAN GOOD SAFARI LTD Robert was born and grew up in Tanzania, and has lived for 40 and more years in Africa.

He promotes an awareness of and participation in Africa & African Safaris, with it's large variety and numbers of flora and fauna, game reserves, national parks and conservation management areas.

Robert grew up in the travel and transport industry, & has a solid background and understanding of Africa from many perspectives.

He has traveled and safari'd in Tanzania, Botswana, South Africa & Zimbabwe, as well as Malawi & Namibia.

A keen diver he has dived the waters of Tanzania, (incl Zanzibar) Mauritius, South Africa, & Australia, and is a qualified celestial/astro navigator.

Robert has a commercial background, with university education and training in two disciplines, Accounting & Finance, and Security & Risk Management, graduating in 2003/2004 with the degree Bachelor of Science (Security) (ECU), and sees a safari and the safari industry as not mutually exclusive, but as one closely integrated, and involved with the economies, conservation and social aspects and aspirations of each host country.
